The Fourth.

The citizens of Oskaloosa and vicinity are requested to meet in front of Messrs. Carson's Store, on Saturday of this week, (17th inst.) at three o'clock, P. M., to make arrangements for celebrating the coming Fourth of July. Let there be a general attendance. The rebellion is crushed, peace has dawned upon the land, and the glorious Anniversary of Independence can now be celebrated with glad hearts. Let the old flag wave and the people rejoice. Come to the meeting at three o'clock to-day (Saturday.)

We understand the friends in Jefferson hold a meeting on Saturday, inst., at Winchester, to arrange for celebrating the Fourth. We wish them success. Let all the people celebrate and be glad. We do not know the hour of the meeting at Winchester, but think it is 2 P. M.

The Sabbath School Pic Nic

Was postponed for last Wednesday, on account of the wet state of the weather and woods. It will come off soon, when due notice will be given.

Runaway.

As Mr. Benj. Chapman and Mr. Barney Taylor and two young ladies were coming into town on Wednesday to the show, in a wagon, the horses ran away, the lines were broken, and the young men both hurt, Mr. C. having his forearm broken. The girls were not injured, we believe.

The Circus.

As represented by the papers of Atchison and Leavenworth, was a lame affair. All circuses are nuisances; but this of Orton's is the poorest little dried up thing we ever saw going through the country. The band was not a good apology—it was an abortion. The music was a fair rival to a concert of frogs in early spring. We did not go inside to see the performances there, but presume they were of a character with the outside of the show. The attendance was not very heavy here.

Emigration.

Since the first of April, we are certainly safe in saying hundreds of wagons have passed through this place, with movers and emigrants going to different parts of the State. It has happened on several occasions that a score or more of teams have passed along our streets in a single day, all filled with people and household goods, and apparently looking for homes in Kansas.

These are favorable indications for the growth of our young State, and we hope that the tide of emigration will continue to flow this way, until every quarter-section of land within our borders is occupied.

Harvesting has commenced in this County. Some of the farmers on the Bottom will have a thousand bushels of wheat to the farm, it is thought, and from this down to one and two hundred bushels. We incline to the opinion that there will be at least twice as much wheat harvested in this County this year, as in any previous year; and we believe the same will hold good throughout the State.

RETURNED.—Dr. S. S. COOPER, who has been absent on a long visit to Indiana, which some thought would be permanent, returned on Thursday of this week looking hale and hearty. His many friends were glad to see him. He thinks Kansas the place to live in after all. We wish the Doctor success. His family are with him.

New Store.

Mr. H. F. WOOLEY, formerly of Winchester, has purchased the old Hall building, and opened up a Dry Goods and Grocery Store in the same. His store-room is the best one in town, and he has a fine stock of entirely new goods, embracing all the styles usually kept, groceries, notions etc., which he is selling cheap. See hand-bills, and give him a call.

HARRIS.—At the residence of the bride's father, Preston Wile, in Oskaloosa, Kansas, June 11th, 1865, by Rev. L. D. FINE, Mr. JOSEPH K. TENDACK and Miss MARY L. WISE, both of Oskaloosa.

The printers return thanks for the fine cake accompanying the above notice, and wish the united pair all the happiness that love's fond dream anticipates.

An Interesting Book.

The American Publishing Company, Hartford, Conn., have in press the recently prepared work of Mr. A. D. Richardson, one of the war correspondents of the New York Tribune, who was captured by the enemy at Vicksburg, and so long held in confinement by the rebels. The title of the work is, "The Field, the War, the Dungeon, and the Escape," and it will be one of the most graphic and readable books of the times. The writer, in the early stages of the rebellion, gave a deeper insight into the motives and designs of the leaders of secession, and revealed more of their plans of action than any other person, and the hot-heads of the South were very anxious to ascertain who it was that revealed their secrets. As the correspondent of the Tribune he was hated, and when captured, persecuted, imprisoned as a felon, and otherwise maltreated. He at last escaped and made his way to our lines, a distance of 400 miles, beset by dangers all the way and in peril on every hand; and the book tells us all about it, and much besides. It is to be sold only by subscription, and agents are wanted in every county. Copies can be had of the publishers. Address as above.

During the thunder storm on Tuesday, a number of persons were shocked by lightning in the vicinity of our residence. A space of more than fifty yards square appears to have been overshadowed by the electric fluid. Some of the parties shocked were momentarily almost unconscious, and some were nearly thrown down. It was an unusual occurrence.

CHANGED HANDS.—The State Journal, published at Lawrence has again changed proprietors, the late owners retire and are succeeded by James Christian and Milton W. Reynolds, both formerly Democrats, but now claiming to be Radicals. We wish them success. The Journal has always been one of our best State exchanges, and we trust will lose none of its ability under the new management. The number already received gives evidence of talent in its conduct, and though still floating the names of the former proprietors at the masthead, it shows the hand of the present owners is driving the quill, and gives John Speer considerable of a rub for a discount notice.

Unpleasant Difference.

The following communication was received some weeks since, but was not published then, nor until a second request by those who felt aggrieved, did we consent to give it to the public, for we very much dislike to make a public matter of personal differences. We regret that any difficulty should occur in the premises. Both the young men are patriotic, and it is unfortunate that there is a disagreement where only friendship should exist. Unquestionably the expressed wishes of the Company should be regarded in all such cases, unless for reasons of paramount importance:

COLDWATER GROVE, May 20, 1865.

ED. INDEPENDENT:—We wish to lay a few facts before the public through the medium of your paper, and submit the following:

We elected Sergt. J. M. RUSSELL to the rank of 2d Lieutenant in this Company, and sent a petition to the Governor for his promotion; but instead of promoting him, Corporal NEWELL was appointed, in consequence of the following misrepresentation, by S. C. Gephart, of Oskaloosa:

1st. That Corp. Newell was elected 1st Sergt. of this Company on its organization, and through personal considerations was reduced to the ranks by the Captain, and had worked his way up by regular promotion to a Sergt. the second time.

2d. That Sergt. Russell was one of Newell's recruits, and was a citizen of Kansas, but of Iowa, enlisted by Corp. Newell at Oskaloosa.

3d. That Russell was but a boy and Newell was a man of judgment and understanding, a good disciplinarian and tactician, and would promote the drill and efficiency of the Company.

4th. That Newell was the man in every respect to commission, as he was moral, temperate, and thoroughly competent for the position.

All of which is an unmitigated falsehood, and willfully wrongs us as well as Sergt. Russell. Corp. Newell was never elected to any office by this Company; he never was a Sergt.; and Sergt. Russell is not one of his recruits, but Newell was recruited by Russell. We think we are competent to choose our own officers, and we would like to have a man for our Lieutenant. Newell has not been mustered yet, and if justice is done, he never will be, as he is not competent for the position. We have not a Sergt. in the Company but what is better qualified than he is for the position; and we think it is a great injustice to our officers and ourselves to have him forced on us as an officer. We hope the matter will have an investigation at Headquarters. We would like to have him go through an examination before he is mustered.
